Sir:

Applicant acknowledges the Examiner's stated reasons for allowance, but does not concede by such acknowledgement that the stated reasons are the only reasons for allowability of the claims.

The following comments are submitted to supplement the Examiner's Interview
Summary mailed November 9, 2006:

On or about October 23, 2006, Applicant's representative informed the Examiner by phone that a Request for Reconsideration had been filed in the present application and requested that applications 11/015,040 and 10/823,235 be considered at the same time. On or about November 3, 2006, Applicant's representative and the Examiner discussed the pending claims and the Sims patent. Applicant's representative referred the Examiner to the detailed discussion of Sims in the Request for Reconsideration filed in the present application on October 23, 2006.

The Examiner indicated he would review both applications 11/015,040 and 10/823,235 together.

Applicant's representative and the Examiner spoke by phone on November 7, 2006 and on November 8, 2006 (See Interview Summary with an interview date November 7, 2006 and with a mailing date of November 9, 2006). The Examiner noted that the distinctions identified between the present claims and Sims were persuasive and that the claims in each application were allowed. The Examiner also required terminal disclaimers with the parent 6,880,612 patent and between applications 11/015,040 and 10/823,235.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: 12/4/06
